MESSAGE FROM THE ATHLETIC DIRECTOR

Remembering 9/11

For you, our student athletes who were not yet born in 2001, September 11th is not a memory, but a history learned. 100 million Americans have been born since the day that changed our world forever. It is important you know how we, as a nation, responded: with unity, resilience, and hope. To honor the lives lost, I encourage you to talk to your parents, grandparents, and teachers. Ask them what they remember about September 11th. Know that the unity we displayed as a country in the days after this tragedy was something none of us will ever forget. As you go about your days, pause to remember that the freedom you enjoy is the very freedom that was attacked that September day. Remember what a privilege it is to live in this country. You may have noticed that we have been honoring this great nation at our Home football games this year with the following tradition, borrowed from Purdue University titled "I Am An American."

Mr. Scott Knapp
Tri-West Athletic Director

I am an American. That's the way most of us put it, just matter of factly. They are plain words, those four: you could write them on your thumbnail, or sweep them across this bright autumn sky. But remember too, that they are more than just words. They are a way of life. So whenever you speak them, speak them firmly, speak them proudly, speak them gratefully.
I am an American.

In closing, be mindful of the freedoms we enjoy as Americans. We should be grateful for all that our US Military and First Responders do in order to protect those freedoms.

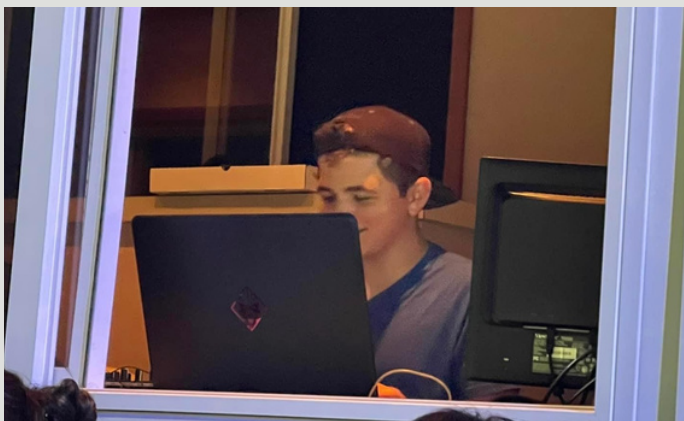

BRUINS IN THE COMMUNITY

Friday was Tri-West Youth and Middle School Night. We were excited to honor all of our TWYFL and Middle School players, cheerleaders, and coaches. Thank you to all of our TWYFL volunteers and Middle School coaches.

The Indianapolis Colts presented the Tri-West High School Athletic Department with a generous donation at Friday's Varsity Football game. We are grateful for the opportunity to partner with the Colts and appreciate their dedication to Indiana High School Football.

A big thank you to Tri-West junior Trey Hannah for playing such a huge role in the game day atmosphere on Friday nights. Thank you, Trey, for playing music and helping make State Bank Stadium THE place to be on Friday nights!
