

2022-23 FCHS SENIOR NIGHT

CROSS COUNTRY

Savannah George

Savannah is the daughter of Melinda George. Her favorite team moment was team dinners her freshman year and running at the state track meet as the anchor with her 4x400m team in 2021. Her future plans are to leave the state for college and possibly run hurdles. To her teammates: "Show up, work hard, be there even if you're just the alternate." To her parents: "Thank you for believing in me mom."

Ainsley is the daughter of Kyle and Janelle Tierney. Her favorite team moment was the team dinners, socializing outside of practice, and meets. Her future plans are to attend college and pursue a degree in Elementary School Teaching. To her teammates: "My advice to my teammates is that it is okay to have bad days. I know it is a very cliché thing for me to say but it is the truth. Every athlete has potential and while one day might seem like the end of the world at that moment, getting up and trying the next day is a strength that takes courage and determination that not many people can do." To her parents: "Thank you so much for everything you do. I am grateful to have both of you at my side through thick and thin. I thank you for encouraging me when I needed it and for all the love and support you give to me. Thank you for dealing with the endless car rides and crazy schedules I have had over these past seven years. I love you so much."

William Coffman

William is the son of Thomas and Kathryn Coffman. His favorite team moment was freshman county at Brebeuf Jesuit, it was a fantastic race run at a fantastic course, and it was great to run with my fellow freshman celebrating the end of their inaugural high school cross country season. William's extra-curricular activities include Student Council and National Honor Society. His future plans are to attend college and major in Political Science. To his teammates: "Ferris Bueller said it best, "Life moves pretty fast. If you don't stop and look around once in a while you could miss it." Enjoy your time in high school, and live in the moment. Get involved, meet new people, and make it 4 years you can look back on and be proud of. " To his parents: "Thank you for always being my biggest supporters. Whether I ran well or bad, you would always root for me and push me to achieve my absolute best, and for that I am very grateful."

Jaxon is the son of Maurice Curtis. His favorite team moment was last season when they had their workout in the cold rain at the end of September. It was probably 50 degrees pouring rain, and cold. They had a workout on the back track and walked back there to go get it done. It had started to rain and of course, none of them were prepared as running shorts and t-shirts aren't necessarily the warmest clothing. They finished the workout and ran inside the school shivering but laughing. Jaxon's extra-curricular activities include FCA. His future plans are to attend college at Purdue University and study Engineering. To his teammates: "Stick with it when it gets hard and put forth an entire effort in every practice. Also, just like a race but over a longer time frame, pick the next teammate in front of you, and stick with them. Also, remember that summer conditioning is just as important as regular season practices." To his parents: " I hope they know that I really appreciate them making me stick with the sport, even when I may have not wanted to do it anymore. They supported me at races and helped push me to be better. Thank you."

Even when you think they are wrong just listen because they know what is best for you," To his parents: "I want to thank my parents for taking me to practice my first two years of high school. I also want to thank my aunt Karen for always making sure I have food after practice and coming to my meets. "

Owen is the son of Jason and Sarah Lackey. His favorite team moment was when Kade started rapping Dr. Seuss during the Semi-State team dinner. The moment was very laid back considering the next day was the most important meets of the year. Owen's extra-curricular activities include cross country, track, and National Honor Society. His future plans are to attend college to study Mechanical Engineering. He also plans to keep running. To his teammates: "In order to achieve a certain amount of success you have to put in double the amount of work. Also, it is okay to have bad days as long as you keep your head up and continue to work hard." To his parents: "I want my parents to know that I couldn't have done it without them. I thank them for all of the support and motivation that they have given me over the years."
