His future plans are to attend college and study medicine. To his teammates: "Make sure to enjoy each moment you get to play, the time does fly by, and be thankful you get to play soccer with your teammates." To his parents: "Thank you for being my number one fan. Thank you for going through the ups and downs, thank you for driving me to games and making me food after I got home. Thank you for putting up with me for these 18 years and for giving me the opportunity to do what I love."

David is the son of David and Maria Lemus. His future plans are to study Auto Engineering or construction. To his teammates: "My advice to my teammates would be, to not only work hard and push each other to be better, but to also enjoy the moments. These past 4 years went by faster than Rony's haircuts, so don't take the time with this team for granted and keep them close because this team gave me some of my best friends. " To his parents: "To my parents, Thank you for the best life, thank you for not only raising me to be the man I am today but also for teaching me lots of valuable lessons, both of you have sacrificed everything for me and my siblings, I promise to make those sacrifices worth it. I love you both."
