

2022-23 SENIOR NIGHT

GIRLS VOLLEYBALL

SAMANTHA HARRIS

Samantha is the daughter of Jack and Brenda Harris. Her favorite team moment was winning their first conference game last year and all the bus rides to away games. Samantha's extra-curricular activities include working and playing volleyball. Her future plans are to attend Ball State to study Criminal Justice. She would also love to travel the world. To her teammates: "Always encourage your teammates whether they make a mistake or do something amazing. Never put anyone down because they made a mistake. Always have a good attitude and have pride in the team. Most importantly, just make everything fun!" To her parents: "I am so grateful for everything that you guys have done for me. Thank you, mom, for providing for the family with everything. Thank you, dad, for helping find out which sport was for me. I love you guys so much and thank you for making me who I am today."

REGAN HARVEY

Regan is the daughter of Brad and Tammy Harvey. Her favorite team moment was beating Noblesville last season giving them their first conference win in several years. Regan's extra-curricular activities include volleyball and softball. Her future plans are to attend the University of Cincinnati and major in Health Sciences and travel the world after college. To her teammates: "Enjoy it, enjoy all of high school and sports and everything that comes with it because it goes by so fast, but it is so much fun. Don't take any moment for granted, and don't stress over little things. Just have fun while you're in high school." To her parents: "Thank you for always being my number 1 supporter and allowing me to play two sports. It's been crazy these past years, but I wouldn't change it for the world. Thank you for always being my rock and letting me do what makes me happy. I wouldn't have been able to do any of this without you guys, I love you."

LIV TARTER

Liv is the daughter of Dustin and Danielle Tarter. Her favorite team moment was beating Noblesville last season and winning their first conference match in years. Liv's extra-curricular activities include Riley Dance Marathon, Flashes Athletic Council, track and was Class Vice President Freshman through Junior year. She played volleyball at The Academy for 5 years and Circle City for 2 years. In her free time, she works at Chicago's Pizza. Her future plans are to study Business at IU. She would like to belong to a sorority and play intramural volleyball, then attend Law School. To her teammates: "It sounds basic but really enjoy every moment, high school in general goes by so fast and nothing is guaranteed so don't take practices and being with the team for granted. Also develop relationships with your teammates because you spend so much time together and knowing them outside of the court is crucial in playing well and having fun together. I feel so lucky to have had been able to play the sport I love with such an amazing group of people these past four years and love you all and will miss you more than you know. Thanks for all the amazing memories that I definitely won't forget." To her parents: "To my mom and dad, words can't describe how thankful I am for all the support you have given me throughout my volleyball career. You've never missed a game or tournament in my 10 years of playing this sport. I am so grateful for the many years of club I played and the experiences and things I've learned, which I thank you guys for. I am also so thankful for all the advice you have given me over the years when I have been hard on myself or have had rough games, you always helped me to be more confident. Being able to travel to out of state tournaments has been such a highlight in my volleyball career and moments I'll always remember. I'm thankful for the things you have helped me to learn about volleyball and the life skills you have taught me that comes with it. I also want to thank my sister for always supporting me in my volleyball career and coming home to surprise me to watch my games. Thanks for exposing me to volleyball when I was little and inspiring me to play. Playing alongside you freshman year was an experience I will always be thankful for and it will always hold a special place in my heart. Love you guys so much, thanks for all you have done for me."
