BOYS VOLLEYBALL

Jackson Boyd

Jackson is the son of Amity Boyd, Michael Boyd Jr., and Michelle Boyd. His favorite team moment was going to get slushies and walking in late to the parent meeting with a whole room of people staring at them and their Friday night lights. Jackson's extra-curricular activities include rec basketball, rec baseball, and hanging out with friends. His future plans are undecided. To his teammates: "Learn your abilities and what you can bring to the team and be confident in those abilities. Strive to be the best version of yourself in everything you do and more importantly bring the best out of your teammates as well. Be a family and believe in each other." To his parents: "The love I have for you guys is indescribable. You have supported me through everything I have ever been a part of. You have never failed to show up for me and with that, you taught me the importance of just being there for others. You have allowed me to find my own identity and have guided me through life by teaching me how to treat others with compassion. I love you guys and I will never be able to thank you enough."

BJ Coykendall

Bj is the son of Bob and Luara Coykendall. His favorite team moment was the bus rides and clash tourneys of the bus. BJ's extra-curricular activities include volleyball, work, and the gym. His future plans are to attend the University of Cincinnati. To his teammates: "No matter what happens, I'll always have your backs on and off the court." To his parents: "I love y'all."

Parker Haas

Parker is the son of Robert and Charity Haas. His favorite team moment was playing Clash Royale on the bus rides. Parker's extra-curricular activities include Unified Flag Football and Club Volleyball. His future plans are to attend IUPUI and study Finance. To his teammates: "Enjoy volleyball as it is a privilege. Never back down from a challenge and never give up on yourself or your teammates." To his parents: "I want my parents to know that I appreciate them always supporting me in this sport. As soon as we found volleyball it took us by storm. My parents supported me from day one and anytime I needed them they were always there."

Will is the son of Todd and Sam Hannah. His favorite team moment was last year's senior night match. Will's extra-curricular activities include being President of FC's FCA, a part of FC's Soccer team, a peer buddy and volunteer in the Special Needs classrooms at FC and a National Honor Society Student. His future plans are to attend IU Bloomington in pursuit of becoming a part of the medical field. To his teammates: "Keep on working hard and playing as a team. You all are very talented players and no doubt you will all continue to get better each game you play. Thank you for the great memories!" To his parents: "Thank you for being my number 1 fan and biggest supporter always. I am so grateful to have two amazing and loving parents who I know will always be in my corner in life. I love you both so much."

Paul Hippleheuser

Paul is the son of JJ and Julie Hippleheuser. His favorite team moment is hard to decide, they have all been great through wins and losses. The best is the fun and competitive nature their team brings to practices every day. Paul's extra-curricular activities include volleyball, soccer, basketball, and work. His future plans are to attend a University and achieve his bachelors in the biology field. To his teammates: "Don't let a record define your team. Go out and compete for each other every game with high spirits and I know you will excel greatly. " To his parents: "More than you guys could ever know, I love you. Through all seasons of life, you have been there to support my worst and best decisions. I couldn't begin to say how thankful I am for having two beautiful parents and the elements they've brought into my life. Through my athletic career and the countless hours of driving and watching and playing, I would just like to take a moment to truly thank you fully. "

Cooper Rolfsen

Cooper is the son of Matt and Angie Rolfsen. His favorite team moment was winning the Noblesville Miller Classic tournament. Cooper's extra-curricular activities include volleyball, FCA, and work. His future plans are to attend IU to study business. To his teammates: "Always work hard and stay unified as a team. " To his parents: "Thank you so much for always showing your love and support for everything I am interested in. You both have made a lot of effort to come to all of my games since I was a kid and I appreciate it."
