GIRLS SOCCER

Lauren Baker

Lauren is the daughter of John and Melanie Baker. Her favorite team moment was when she and Emily tried to hold up Sabriah's head after she passed out on the ride Delirium at Kings Island. Lauren's extra-curricular activities include basketball and the National Honor Society. Her future plans are to double major in finance and accounting. To her teammates: "Be thankful for every minute you get to play and always cherish the friendships you've made with your teammates." To her parents: "Thank you for supporting me during my injury. It was a very difficult experience and I know I wouldn't have gotten through it without you. Despite not always showing it I appreciate and love you guys unconditionally."

Breese is the daughter of Brandi Bass. Her extra-curricular activities include soccer, track, and wrestling. She also loves to go camping with her family and ride four-wheelers and side by sides. Breese's future plans are to play D1 soccer at Murray State and pursue a degree in psychology and dietitian. To her teammates: "When things get tough and you feel you're on the edge, that's when you really got to push through things. The work you did when no one was watching, the breakdowns, the not being able to get out of bed, wondering if you are going to make it..... Take a deep breath! Enjoy the fruits of your labor. You did it!!" To her parents: "Thank you both! For seeing something in me that you knew had potential, and for spending the time, money, and effort so that all I had to do was keep my head on straight and work hard for it! Dad I wish you could be here, but thank you for everything you taught me, for taking care of me, and for always having my back. I already miss not being able to talk to you before and after games, I miss your smile and warm hugs, especially when I'm down after a game or practice. I love you both so much!!"

GIRLS SOCCER

Sabriah Bond

Sabriah is the daughter of Richard and Peggy Bond. Her favorite team moment was her junior year when Lauren hit a banger outside the box and they both ran and hugged each other while playing Roncalli. They won from that goal. Sabriah's extra-curricular activities include soccer. Her future plans are to attend IUPUI and study Social Work. To her teammates: "Don't be so hard on yourself after games because you'll get into the habit and lose your confidence. Keep reminding yourself that you are good enough. Also, make new friends, don't be afraid to talk to someone, and go out of your comfort zone because this team will eventually become your family." To her parents: "To my mom, thank you for pushing me how hard you did and showing me to never give up and to succeed you can't just quit. To my dad, thank you for showing up even though I know your schedule is busy but it means the world to me. Without you, I wouldn't have tried so many new things that made me meet the best people I know today. You both are my heart and soul love you guys."

Genny Foulk

Genny is the daughter of Andy and Kelly Foulk. Her favorite team moment was going to Kings Island. Genny's extra-curricular activities include NHS. She plans to attend college and study something in STEM. To her teammates: "My advice to my teammates is just to continue to work really hard and get out of your comfort zone." To her parents: "I want to thank my parents for how supportive and loving they've been, but most of all I want to thank them for pushing me as hard as they have. I have a tendency to stay only where I am comfortable and let opportunities pass me by, so without their help I wouldn't be where I am today."

GIRLS SOCCER

Emma Hahn

Emma is the daughter of Greg and Crystal Hahn. Her favorite team moment was her junior year when they went to Kings Island and Ava kept passing out next to her on the Diamond Back and she had to hold her head up every time. Emma's extra-curricular activities include club soccer, NHS, Gardening Club, and youth group. Her future plans are to attend a university and study business administration and accounting. To her teammates: "These are some of the nicest and sweetest people you will ever meet. I have found some of my closest friends through this sport and wouldn't trade these friendships for the world. Whether you need someone to talk to after a crappy game or someone to go see a coach in an amazing play, be sure you don't take these friendships for granted. These four years go insanely fast and before you know it you're at your senior night with your teammates. " To her parents: "I would like to thank my parents. They've taught me not only to be a strong person but a strong player. I appreciate all of the talks after the games whether it is while going to get a milkshake from DQ or in the form of an email because I was too stubborn to listen after a game. They are the reason I am who I am today and I would like them to know that I wouldn't be the person or player I am without their support through the years. "

Zoe Jones

Zoe is the daughter of Dave and Jennifer Jones. Her favorite team moment was sophomore year, Breece somehow managed to kick herself at practice, and apparently, no one saw but it was the funniest thing ever. Zoe's extra-curricular activities include soccer, running track, and working at Kroger. Her future plans are to become an OBGYN. To her teammates: "Stay confident in yourself and your ability to play, don't let worrying about making a mistake bring you down. " To her parents: "Thank you for supporting me throughout my entire soccer career. I appreciate all the money and time you have given me to pursue my sport and appreciate you guys driving me to all my practices and games and then coming back to get me after I called you saying it got canceled. You guys are truly my biggest fans and I cannot thank you enough!"

2022-23 FCHS SENIOR NIGHT

GIRLS SOCCER

Gurleen Kaur

Gurleen is the daughter of Harinder Singh and Amandeep Kaur. Her favorite team moment was the ride back from Kings Island. Everyone was sleeping, it was peaceful and calming. Gurleen's extra-curricular activities include NHS, wrestling, soccer, and working at Fujiyama. Her future plans are to attend medical school and become a psychiatrist. To her teammates: "One of my biggest regrets was never joining soccer freshman year. I wasn't going to do soccer senior year either, but that's when I realized that we only live once. So make the most of it and do what you want. Stop letting limitations or hesitation take you away from great opportunities." To her parents: "I know I haven't been giving the best efforts in my life. As I get older, I am realizing that things aren't just going to be handed to me. I thank you for always trying to push me on and giving me advice to make my effort worth it. I'll try hard so you guys can be proud of what I become."

Cora is the daughter of Kris and Steph McCormick. Her favorite team moment would be picture day. The team always gets along great, but, on picture day they act like best friends and she loves hearing everyone lift each other up and give out compliments on how everyone looks. Cora's extra-curricular activities include soccer, basketball, and hanging out with friends. Her future plans are to attend college. Her major is undecided but she is interested in meteorology. To her teammates: "My advice to my teammates is love everyone, don't have drama just enjoy your time while you still have it, also keep up with your fitness because I promise you it will always catch up with you if you don't." To her parents: "I want my parents to know how thankful I am for them for supporting me through any decision I've made, and how much they've helped me through it all and all the motivation they have given me throughout the years. They are truly the best parents one could ask for and I love them so much. Thank you for everything."

GIRLS SOCCER

Ava Rolfsen

Ava is the daughter of Matthew and Angie Rolfsen. Her favorite team moment would be when she taught Miss Michelle how to use Spotify and they had a dance party on the bus waiting for the storm to pass. Ava's extra-curricular activities include soccer and FCS. Her future plans are to graduate high school in December. In January she will be living in Mexico for 6 months for dts. She will then attend Liberty University in the Fall to study Elementary Education and ASL. To her teammates: "We aren't just teammates on the soccer field. We are teammates in every part of our lives so don't just show up with the mindset of only being there to play soccer. We fight together to win a soccer game so we should fight together to win this silly little game called life. If your teammates are down, go pick them up. You never know what battles someone is fighting on their own.." To her parents: "Words can't thank you enough for the amount of time you have invested into my soccer career. Thank you for the lunches you have packed and the number of times you've turned around halfway to a tournament because I forgot my cleats. Thank you for supporting me through every decision I've made whether it has to do with soccer or not. And most importantly, thank you for loving me when I'm being a Dumby. I love you guys. "

Brynn is the daughter of Donal and Nikki Spellman. Her favorite team moment was praying to the radish gods her sophomore year to win sectional. Brynn's extra-curricular activities include soccer and the National Honor Society. Her plans are to attend college and study some form of Environmental Science. To her teammates: "My advice would be to cherish every moment. I know it's cliché but these years fly by and before you know it it'll be over, (I swear I was just a freshman). Respect and love your teammates unconditionally they can make your worst days better without you even knowing it. Look out for each other and most importantly have fun!" To her parents: "I would like to thank my parents for everything, without them I wouldn't be the person I am today. Thank you for waking up for 8 a.m. games, and thank you for driving me halfway across the country just for soccer. But most importantly, thank you for being my biggest supporter. If it wasn't for you I wouldn't have the confidence to stand here today. I owe everything to you and I love you."

GIRLS SOCCER

Erica Thackery

Erica is the daughter of Josh and Susan Thackery. Her favorite team moment was from the scrimmage match against Greefield, it was canceled due to lightning. They were all so soaked on the bus listening to music and dancing for over an hour. Erica's extra-curricular activities include being a member of Skills USA, the National Technical Honor Society, and the National Association of Dental Assistants. She works for Chicago's Pizza and as a dental assistant at South Indy Family Dentistry. She also plays soccer for FC Pride. Her future plans are to continue her soccer and academic career at Indiana University of South Bend and study Dental Hygiene. To her teammates: "If I had to say one thing, it would be to never take a moment for granted. High school goes by so fast, so cherish the little moments, because soon this is going to be you walking on your senior night." To her parents: "Thank you for pushing me to be the best version of myself on and off the field. Your constant pushing, guidance, and belief in me have shaped me into the person I am today. Thank you for always being my biggest cheerleader, for believing in my dreams, and for giving me the courage to pursue them. I am going to miss you, and the countless things you do to help me. I love you guys so much."
