DRAGONS NOTES

- Guard Isabella Gizzi became the Dragons' career scoring leader in Tuesday's game at Greenwood. Her 23 points gave her 1,173 for her career, eclipsing a record held by her mother - Dragons coach Sarah (Haynes) Gizzi - since 1994. They are two of the five 1,000-point scorers in school history. The five have come from three families - in addition to the Gizzis, Debby and Linda Batz, as well as Raegan McMurray, have eclipsed the 1,000-point mark at NPHS. Isabella followed with 26 points against Warren Central and now has 1,199 for her career.
- The Dragons dropped two games to large Marion County schools this week. Thursday, they dropped a 60-42 decision to Warren Central despite 26 points from Gizzi and eight from Vivian Miller.
- In Tuesday's 58-54 loss to Franklin Central, the Dragons battled back from a 21-13 halftime deficit to take a 50-49 lead in the fourth quarter, but ultimately fell in the closing stretch as the Flashes hit back-to-back 3-pointers to re-take the lead for good.
- In addition to Gizzi's team-high 23 points, juniors Allie Blum and Miller scored 11 points each for the Dragons at FC. Each hit three 3-pointers. It was each player's second career double-digit scoring game.
- Isabella joined her brother Maximus as NPHS career scoring leaders, as Maximus became the Dragons' boys scoring leader in 2020 with 1,612 points. He currently plays at Marian University. NPHS is one of eight schools statewide where siblings are the boys and girls basketball career scoring leaders.
- The Dragons' 41 points in the second half Tuesday were a season-best.

SCOUTING THE LIONS

- The Lions are 3-2, having dropped a 45-43 decision to Beech Grove Saturday and a 54-50 contest Friday at Mt. Vernon. They are led by sophomore Leonie Boyer, who averages 18.4 ppg and 7.8 rpg. Senior Briley Munchel tallies 13.2 ppg.

The 2020 sectional championship victory over Anderson made her the second-winningest coach in NPHS history. As Sarah Haynes, Coach Gizzi became New Palestine's only girls basketball Indiana All-Star in 1994. She graduated as New Palestine's career scoring leader with 1,172 points. She also had 680 career rebounds. She led the Dragons to two sectional titles and three conference titles during her playing career. Gizzi played collegiately at La Salle University in Philadelphia. Gizzi was named to the Indiana Basketball Hall of Fame's Silver Anniversary Team for 2019. Gizzi taught math at New Palestine Junior High and was the district Teacher of the Year in 2017. She currently works in the corporation office. Prior to becoming the varsity head coach, she was an assistant on the Dragons' staff from 2010-12 and coached the eighth grade team from 2013-17. She lives in New Palestine with her husband, Mike, who is the NPHS junior varsity boys coach, and their three children.
