Lady Eagles Basketball

Varsity Basketball Record Book
1975-2024

Team, Individual, Season & Career
History of JCD Girls Basketball

November 2005

JCD has one of the finest Women's basketball traditions in the State of Indiana. That tradition is due to the hard work of the young woman who are in this book. Because of this hard work, it is regrettable that some players in the early years of the program are under-recognized.

This is a compilation of all available statistics. There are no statistics for the great teams in the early years of the program, so non-scoring statistics for that period are not included. It is doubtful if they were ever documented. We are also missing the scorebook from the 1976-77 season. We have tried to track down the coach, but have been unable to locate the book. We have included only scoring from that season for Rita Foster, because her numbers have been certified by the IHSAA and the Indiana Basketball Hall of Fame. When this book is found or recreated, those statistics will be added to this book.

Many thanks to Coaches Maurice Meyers, Mark Meyer, and Greg Whaley for the statistics they contributed. Thanks also to Rita Foster and Lavita Huffmeyer for their contributions to this book and JCD Girls Basketball. Special thanks to my wife, Vickie, for her help in compiling these records. Finally, thanks to the hundreds of players who have all had a hand in building the tradition of Lady Eagle Basketball.

Scott Smith

A Brief History

The JCD girl's basketball program got its initial start in 1973. An enthusiastic group of girls under Coach Carol Clark played a nine game season, two years before the IHSAA sanctioned girls basketball. The team finished with a 5-4 record and a runner-up finish in the Scottsburg Invitational Tournament. As with other early seasons, we have no further information on the season. We do have the team members of this first team at JCD. These pioneers were:

|                     |                        |
|---------------------|------------------------|
| Mindy Greene - Sr.  | Mary Oesterling - Jr.  |
| Barb Busch - Sr.    | Kathy Keith - So.      |
| Mary Kohlman - Sr.  | Janice Kohlman - So.   |
| Susan Meyer - Sr.   | Lavita Huffmeyer - So. |
| Robyn Fields - Sr.  | Marsh Fields - So.     |
| Janice Steuri - Sr. | Terry Schutte - So.    |
| Chris Meyer - Mgr.  |                        |

Coach Clark moved on to another teaching/coaching position and the 1974-75 team was coached by Lynn Placke. Again playing another nine game season, the Lady Eagles finished with the programs first undefeated season, 9-0. They also claimed the Lawrenceburg Invitational Tournament title. Team members were:

|                         |                    |
|-------------------------|--------------------|
| Mary Oesterling - Sr.   | Joan Peetz - Fr.   |
| Janice Kohlman - .      | Kim Hermes - Fr.   |
| Lavita Huffmeyer - Jr.. | Lois Kohlman - Fr. |
| Marsh Fields - Jr.      | Peggy Keith - Fr.  |
| Jerry Gloyd - Fr. .     | Rita Foster - Fr.  |

In the 1975-76 season, the IHSAA sanctioned girls play with the first official state tournament. Jac-Cen-Del 's girls teams during the first three years of sanctioned play, under coach Mary Jo McClelland, was the dominant basketball power in southern Indiana. They went 55-3 and a state runner-up finish in the 77-78 season. That senior class departed with an unequalled 64-3 record. While few statistics survive from this early period, these women were true pioneers and helped Jac-Cen-Del to be one of the cradles of girl's basketball in Indiana.
